

Opuiyo Oforiokuma

Managing Director/CEO - ARM-Harith Infrastructure Investment Ltd

Mr. Opuiyo Oforiokuma serves as Chief Executive Officer and Managing Director at ARM-Harith Infrastructure Investment Limited. Mr. Oforiokuma has been Chief Executive Officer and Managing Director at ARM Infrastructure Fund since October 1, 2012. He served as the Chief Executive Officer and Managing Director of Lekki Concession Company Limited.

Mr. Oforiokuma's areas of expertise include new product and service strategy development, change management, business process reengineering, business restructuring and turnaround, cost reduction and operational efficiency improvement, commercial negotiation, M&A, project management, finance. He joined Thames Water, the UK's largest privatized Water Utility Company, in 1990. During a 16-year career with Thames Water, he was appointed Finance Director of Thames Water International in 2000 and led Thames Water's International Financial Function at a time of its considerable growth and overseas expansion.

Appointed Business Performance Director, Latin America, in 2002, he relocated to Chile, from where he led a fundamental redesign and restructuring of Thames Water's Chilean business operations. In 2003 he relocated again, this time to the USA, on being appointed Vice President of Business Change in American Water, the largest investor-owned Water Utility Company in the USA at the time. He co-directed American Water's Business Transformation Programme. In 2005, he was appointed Vice President of Product and Service Innovation of American Water and commenced the development and implementation of a new strategy to create growth from new business start-ups and service offerings. In 2006, he left American Water to pursue new interests. Mr. Oforiokuma is an honours graduate in Accountancy and Financial Management from the University of Buckingham.